Dear Parishioners,

In Ecclesiastes chapter three, the writer reflects on how God makes everything appropriate to its time. This is certainly true of my time with you over the past year! The privilege has been mine to serve as your parish priest! There are so many good people here. You inspire me with your genuineness, hard work, team work, your willingness to help, and your generosity to me and to our parishes. I shall miss being with you. This has been a great year before retirement. You have been a great blessing to me! If you can believe it, I am lost for words! So simply, THANK YOU!

The Prayer of St. Francis is one that has inspired me most of my life. To me it is a good guide on how to live each day as a gift from God.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Great News! Three women from our parishes will be recognized as a Woman of Distinction by Bishop Thomas John Paprocki, Saturday, July 23rd, 10:00 am Mass at the Cathedral.

St. Maurice: Deb Forbes

St. Raymond: Marlene Marten

St. Mary's: Mary Jane Schmidt

These women represent the goodness of all our people!

From this Sunday's Responsorial Psalm:

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

You will show me the path to life,
fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

You will always remain in my prayers,
please pray for me.

God bless you, Fr. John C. Burnette

The kings of Judah could have multiple wives, but they only had one mother – the queen mother. She was the most important and influential women in the royal court. Your hard work is making a difference!

How many of you have worked the Fish Stand or Turkey Bazaar? Money earned there has paid for the painting of the trim of St. Maurice church and rectory—even to the top of the steeple! You have also paid for the new carpet on the rectory porch, and the balance on the cost of the new shed.

This is the power of teamwork!

Thank you!
