Works of mercy, the path to Life.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear of a rich man who lives in luxury and a poor man living in total destitution, right outside his door...

This Gospel is seen today in our world where some peoples are overwhelmed with wealth while others are disadvantaged and miserable. Worse, the rich continue to grow their bank accounts while the poor are constantly getting poorer. And often, alas!, these rich people do not even notice the misery that surrounds them.

It is a fact that riches often cause God to be forgotten. This rich man of whom the Gospel speaks felt independent, self-sufficient and not finding time to consult the Word of God, the Law or the Prophets. When Abraham reminds him that all he had to do to gain eternal reward in heaven was written in the Word, the Law and the Prophets, he realizes that he did not care when he was on earth. However, he remembers his family, he still has five brothers, he says. Couldn't we warn them? No, Abraham replies that if they listen to the natural Law inscribed in their hearts they will know that before God, there is no class of people and that all humans are sons of God, therefore brothers.

Many people believe that if God allowed a revelation, a miracle, an apparition, their faith would be greater. No, the true and only miracle is the Word of God that we find in our Bible; our Gospel. Listening to it and putting it into practice is the only wealth that is worth the effort.

Calling all to the 2-night only theatrical release of Mother Teresa: No Greater Love

October 3rd and 4th
7:00 PM at AMC Springfield 12

Mother Teresa is one of the most inspirational figures of the 20th century. In honor of the 25th anniversary of her passing, the Knights of Columbus has produced a feature-length documentary film on the life and legacy of this beloved humanitarian and the singular vision she and her sisters have embraced to serve the poor. Far more than a documentary, this film is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, and a guidepost for all who seek hope today. Bring your family, friends and neighbors to see this definitive film on a modern saint and be inspired to put your faith into action.
