FATHER'S COLUMN

Jesus said to his disciples:

"You are the salt of the earth...You are the light of the world."

Today, in this continuation of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says that the disciples who live the Beatitudes that he proclaimed last Sunday are salt and light.

Good teacher that he is, Jesus compares discipleship with these two things that were familiar to his listeners and essential for them. He says it directly, forcefully: "You are..."

For the people of Jesus's day, salt had great importance, both socially and religiously. Some of its uses persist today.

-Salt was a food preservative and a food seasoning. Adding salt to food made it tastier, while adding it to incense preserved its fragrance and holiness as Exodus presents it (Ex 30:35).

-Again, newborn babies were rubbed with salt in the belief that this was good for their health and could also have some symbolic religious significance of preservation and incorruptibility.

-Salt was also applied to the skin to heal wounds.

-It was used in rituals as a symbol of the fidelity to, or "preserving" of a covenant.

-To describe people's speech as "seasoned with salt" (Col 4:6) was to suggest that their words were "tasty", wise and graciously humorous.

-Although some salt is needed for fertile soil, an excess is harmful, and so in a symbolic gesture of judgment and condemnation, those who, at war, destroyed a city might scatter or "sow" it with salt (Judg 9:45) to express the hope that nothing would grow there again (Jer 17:6).

When Jesus calls his disciples "the salt of the earth," he is suggesting by this figure of speech that they have a responsibility for savoring the world with God's love, making it more to "God's taste", healing its wounds.

The big question this Sunday is: "What is the contemporary corruption that we need to name and challenge so that our Christian saltiness contributes to humanity, society, our church, and our planet being preserved, healed, and changed for the kingdom of God in Christ?"

Salt is not sweet and mellow, and neither can our Christian discipleship be. Put salt on a sore spot and it stings as well as heals.

The other comparison that Jesus makes this Sunday is to light. Disciples are the light of the world, as the ritual of baptism declares by the presentation of the burning candle. Like salt, so with fire: both exist not for themselves, but to give taste, warmth, or illumination to something beyond themselves. Not the powerful empires of the past or the superpower of any age, but life lived according to the Beatitudes is what will give light to the world. This is to be a communal endeavor, as obvious as a well-lighted city on a hilltop.

Just as salt is used to make food tasty, so a lamp was lit in the house of most of Jesus's listeners in order to illuminate the whole living space. Disciples who are salt and light do not draw attention to themselves, but to God. They declare that, through their commitment to the way of life to which Jesus calls his disciples and his sustaining grace, the reign of God is coming into our world.

2025 Contribution Statements

Last week we emailed out 2025 contribution statements to everyone in our parish unit that we have an email for. Emails would have come from Pushpay.com.

If you did not receive an emailed statement and would like one, please contact Kateri at kmarten@stmr.org or call the St. Raymond office at 217-229-4435 and we will be happy to get you a printed copy.

St. Maurice Greeters/Ushers

Thanks to all who volunteer to be Greeters. We appreciate you! We could use a few more greeters. If you would like to be one, let Deb Forbes know at 217-825-3129

Bookkeeper/Secretary Needed

Our parish unit is in need of new bookkeepers and secretaries at all three parishes as the current staff is ready to step down. We are in need of either one or two persons covering all 3 parishes in our unit or one or two individuals at each parish. The responsibilities of the jobs would be paying bills weekly, completing statistical and Financial Diocesan reports as required, entering weekly contributions, keeping sacramental records up to date and accurate, making ministry schedules, scheduling Mass intentions, preparing 1099 reports at year end, plus other assignments as necessary. The job would probably take about 6-8 hours weekly at each parish or if one person was serving all three parishes 20-25 hours weekly. We will need one person to design, print and distribute the bulletins for our unit each week.

If you are interested, please call Father Florent 414-460-0335. If you have specific questions concerning the job, you may contact Marlene Marten 217-254-3224, Deb Forbes 217-825-3129 or Kateri Marten kmarten@stmr.org

St. Raymond Angle Tree Project Recap and Thank You

6 churches and 4 organizations participated in this project in 2025. We provided 110 students in 63 households with Christmas gifts. Over 600 gifts were purchased, which is the most we have done. Each household also received a Aldi gift card.

We would like to thank everyone at St. Raymond who participated!
