FATHER'S COLUMN

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses
that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

The Gospel of this last Sunday before Lent reminds us that Jesus holds his disciples to a high standard. What does God desire for creation and how are we to live out the divine will?

Today's Gospel could be read as another list of religious dos and don'ts. The law Jesus came to fulfil manifests in a myriad of ways. Whatever your relationship to the issues named: anger, adultery, divorce, and staying faithful to vows, Jesus offers these teachings as a means of drawing us closer to God.

These teachings reveal something about the divine will, and thus, about God's very self. Our God is a God of truth and justice, who values reconciliation and desires right relationship for all of his creation.

In light of today's Gospel, we are invited to consider: Is there a relationship in your life that needs mending? How might you take a step toward reconciliation this week?

Today's Gospel may be difficult to digest for those of us who have personal experience with the issues named this Sunday by Jesus. Perhaps there is anger burning right now between you and a loved one. Maybe you have been the victim, or perpetrator of adultery... Who among us has never looked upon another with lust? Who among us does not care about someone who is divorced?

Let us be gentle with ourselves and with each other as we take in Jesus's message. In coming to fulfil the law, Jesus did not come to shame or destroy us. He came to help us grow more faithful each day, and to help us strengthen our muscles of repentance and reconciliation. This could be needed as Lent steps in in a few days.

Lenten Regulations

Abstinence: Everyone 14 years of age and over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fast: Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 is required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to each person's needs, but together these two should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids (including milk and fruit juices) are allowed.

To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

St. Maurice Accepting Mowing Bids

Bids are being accepted from now until Sunday, March 1 for the 2026 mowing season. Please see information posted in the church vestibule for additional information.

2025 Contribution Statements

A couple of weeks ago we emailed out 2025 contribution statements to everyone in our parish unit that we have an email for. Emails would have come from Pushpay.com.

If you did not receive an emailed statement and would like one, please contact Kateri at kmarten@stmrm.org or call the St. Raymond office at 217-229-4435 and we will be happy to get you a printed copy.

Bookkeeper/Secretary Needed

Our parish unit is in need of new bookkeepers and secretaries at all three parishes as the current staff is ready to step down. We are in need of either one or two persons covering all 3 parishes in our unit or one or two individuals at each parish. The responsibilities of the jobs would be paying bills weekly, completing statistical and Financial Diocesan reports as required, entering weekly contributions, keeping sacramental records up to date and accurate, making ministry schedules, scheduling Mass intentions, preparing 1099 reports at year end, plus other assignments as necessary. The job would probably take about 6-8 hours weekly at each parish or if one person was serving all three parishes 20-25 hours weekly. We will need one person to design, print and distribute the bulletins for our unit each week.

If you are interested, please call Father Florent 414-460-0335. If you have specific questions concerning the job, you may contact Marlene Marten 217-254-3224, Deb Forbes 217-825-3129 or Kateri Marten kmarten@stmrm.org

SDCCW Scholarship for High School Girl Graduates

Four girls from the Springfield Diocese will be awarded a $2,000 scholarship through the SDCCW. To apply, please see the information packets in your parish vestibule.
