FATHER'S COLUMN

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give
is my flesh for the life of the world."

On occasion, we find ourselves exclaiming, "This baby is so cute I could eat him up." We are enticed by loveliness, innocence, and responsiveness to take the baby in, to bring the baby to ourselves, to want to be one with the baby. This expression reveals the connection we naturally sense exists between eating and communion.

Why does Jesus want us to eat his flesh and drink his blood? Not because he is cute! But because he is the bread come down from heaven. Because in his flesh divinity took on the fullness of humanity.

When we receive Holy Communion, Christ gives us a share in his risen Life. The core of the mystery of Eucharist is the Son's self-giving that is our eternal Life. The Eucharist is a sacrament of Christ's self-giving. When we receive this sacrament, it is for our eternal Life, but not only for ourselves. We, like Christ, must embrace lives of self-giving.

Very quickly after receiving Holy Communion, we are dismissed from Mass with words that remind us to "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by our life." This is a clear reminder that we commune with the Lord in order to live in such a way that others are brought to fullness of Life.

A LETTER FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

From his first appearance after his election in May 2025, Pope Leo XIV has called upon Catholics to live in peace and unity with one another within the Church and to share this invitation to peace and unity with the whole world.

Throughout history, Catholics have shared the peace and unity of Christ with the world by proclaiming the Gospel and performing works of mercy that bring comfort to the poor and vulnerable.

For centuries, Catholics have expressed our unity with the Pope by giving to the Peter's Pence Collection, which supports his mission to proclaim Christ's message of unity and peace with the world. Our gifts to the Holy Father are "concrete signs of hope" to Pope Leo XIV that fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence: "1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and 2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of hope and charity. Join our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Leo XIV carry out his ministry to the Universal Church and reach out to the most marginalized in our world.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki, Bishop of Springfield
